

Article Presentation Reflection

A. Evaluate your presentation.

1. Using the table below, in the third column, give yourself an A, B, C, D, or F based on the following performance levels.

Grade	Performance Level
A	Excellent
B	Superior
C	Satisfactory, Competent, Acceptable
D	Marginal
F	Failure

2. Next to each letter grade, write at least one sentence explaining why you rated your project at that performance level for that criterion.

Criteria	Description of Excellent (A) Performance	Your Self-Rating and Evaluation
Content	Presenter demonstrates full grasp of the material and is interesting, engaging, and focused. Information is compelling. Author's argument is clear and effectively presented. All content is pertinent to the presentation and aids in class's understanding.
Sociological Perspective & Relevance	Demonstrates deep understanding of the sociological perspective. Sociological relevance is clear and consistently reinforced throughout.
Organization	Well-organized in a logical sequence. Easy to follow. Presentation time departs from 5 to 7 minutes by less than 1 minute.
Delivery	Audible and articulate. Limited use of filler words (e.g. umm, like, etc.). Presentation appears well rehearsed. Presenter is speaking, not reading from notes. Good pacing (not too slow or rushed). Eye contact is made. No gum or other distractions.
Discussion	Author leads engaging class discussion. Author poses effective and understandable critical thinking questions to the class. Students do more talking than the author. The conversation is substantive and easily fills the allotted time.
Slide	Slide(s) is/are clean and simple, not distracting; slide(s) is/are informative, engaging, and add(s) value to the presentation. Uses correct spelling, grammar, punctuation, and formatting throughout.
